

LTD Expo Empowers Business Women

The Pasadena Convention Center was the site of the recent LTD Expo 2011, a conference for entrepreneurial-focused women. The expo, which was organized by Nada Jones, CEO and founder of LTD365.com, offered mainstage speakers, breakout sessions and resources geared toward launching or growing a dream business. Lisa Stevens, Ali Brown, Jen Boulden and Jones were the featured speakers at the Wells Fargo-sponsored event, which included a breakfast, lunch and book signing.
